This is to everyone that has contacted me since Thursday:

I am overwhelmed with calls (both my IBM line and my private line) and with e-mail (both my IBM ID and my personal ID). I am quite comfortable in saying I have heard from at least 1,000 of you.

I am here to apologize to those 1,000.

Hundreds of you have left word on my phone mail to call you back. I'm so sorry, but I can't do that. There are so many 'call backs' that I'm afraid I wouldn't be able to afford my personal long distance bill, come the end of the month. Also, I don't want to return calls on IBM's line. I could just see me trying to explain a ton of long distance calls on my calling card while filling out EA2000. What a hoot!

Hundreds of others have asked that I reply to their e-mail. Again, I feel so bad, but there is a limitation to this. If the e-mail was sent to me at my IBM ID, I have chosen not to respond to you. Of course I would love to do so, but I worry that IBM might be watching me and I don't want to violate any possible Business Conduct Guidelines (BCG) and get anyone in trouble.

Again, I'm so sorry that I'm not responding to all of you. I wanted you to know that I am not ignoring you. I have read and listened to everything that has been said.

I thank everyone for their calls and messages. Please stay tuned to this board and the papers as the case progresses. I worry about the Treasury and Congress and the spin that corporate America and their 'advisors' are feeding the press. It is intended to make us look like the bad guys. Like I said, what a hoot!

I am a member of the Alliance and believe they have our best interest at heart. Please feel free to join the Alliance if you feel the same as I do.

Thanks everyone and hang in there!
